

Civitel Olympic

A modern focus in corporate Athens

The modern business suburb of Maroussi is home to numerous businesses, multinational corporations and sports facilities. The Civitel Olympic, along with its sister property five minutes away, the Civitel Attik, are the only hotels in the area featuring a comfortable range of conference spaces. You can create your very own event or conference at the property easily and quickly, supported by the flexibility and customized options provided by a friendly boutique hotel. In addition, if you are attending a trade fair or conference in any of the main exhibition centers, you will be delighted to know that almost all of them are within very easy reach of the hotel.

Civitel Attik

More than a business hotel

The Civitel Attik's pleasant surroundings, from the pool and garden to the large terrace and classy location, make it ideal to host successful events and meetings. The hotel's spacious restaurant area, spread over 280 meters square, can host up to 300 people for a spectacular cocktail. The main conference hall can accommodate up to 160 people, while the small conference room can hold anywhere between 10 and 100 guests, depending on the event. The superb veranda can also host anywhere between 25 and 160 people, adding to the choice of options that help ensure a spectacular event.

2A Kifissias str., 151 25 Maroussi, Greece, T: +30 210 6801900 · F: +30 210 6898195
E: info@civitelhotels.com, W: www.civitelhotels.com

Akali Hotel

Explore the island of treasures

While the Akali Hotel is the perfect place for a vacation, it has also built an excellent reputation as a corporate business hotel with superior conference facilities. Its adjustable conference spaces can accommodate anywhere from 10 to 300 people, making Chania accessible to numerous businesses or individuals who want to host an event close to the center of town. The Akali is indeed where business meets pleasure, as corporate delegations, sports teams or gala dinner organizers can combine the best of four-star conference services with all the attractions of the town and the island.

Creta Beach Hotel & Bungalows

The best of seaside and the city

If you would like to stay on a quiet sandy beach outside Heraklion yet close enough to the city center for its historical sites and shopping, the Creta Beach on the golden shores of Ammoudara is an outstanding choice that combines all these elements. The renovated hotel is unique in its multiple private bungalows and tastefully refurbished hotel rooms set in natural landscaped gardens among more than 200 palm trees, just meters away from the beach. In this property that respects the environment on many levels, you will be greeted by the gentle sound of the waves and the chirping of numerous birds.

